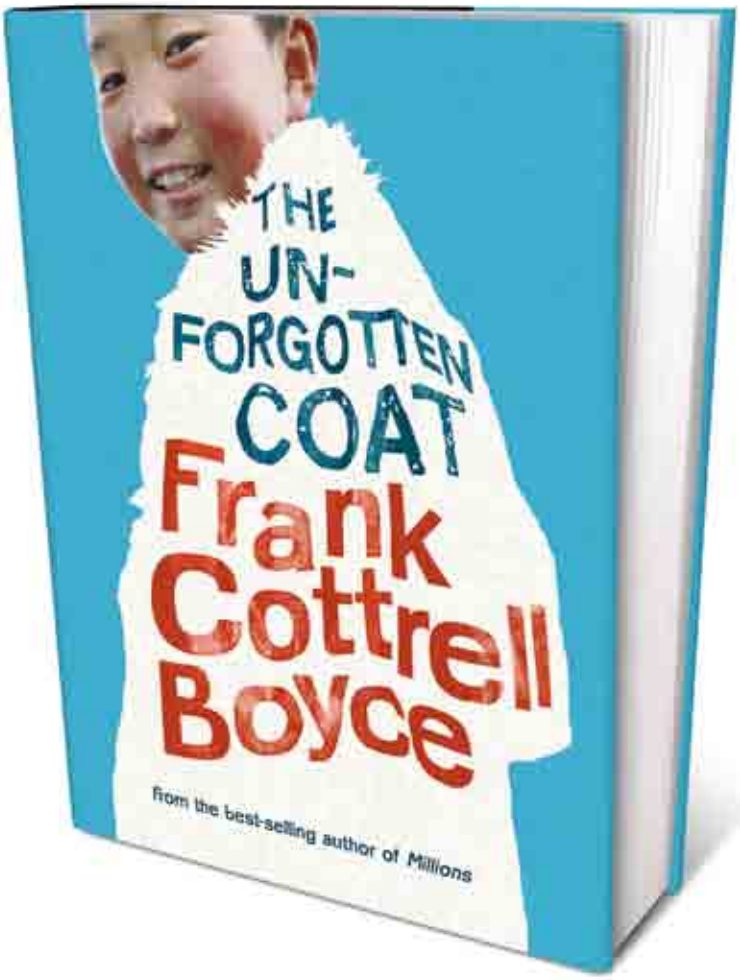
The Unforgotten Coat

By Frank Cottrell Boyce

A stunning magical story of a summer of friendship with darker undertones of refugees.



Two refugee brothers from Mongolia are determined to fit in with their Liverpool schoolmates, but bring so much of Mongolia to Bootle that their new friend and guide, Julie, is hard-pressed to know truth from fantasy as she recollects a wonderful friendship that was abruptly ended when Chingis and his family were forced to return to Mongolia. Told with the humour, warmth and brilliance of detail which characterizes Frank Cottrell Boyce's writing, this magical and compelling story is enriched by stunning and atmospheric Polaroid photos.

- Frank Cottrell Boyce's first book, Millions, won the 2004 Carnegie Medal and was shortlisted for the Guardian Children's Fiction Prize
- His books Framed and Cosmic were both shortlisted for the Carnegie Medal
- The Unforgotten Coat has been chosen as part of Our Read 2011, the world's biggest single-book giveaway with 50,000 free copies distributed across the UK and beyond

CITV Set To Unleash Fleabag Monkeyface!

UK children's network CITV will be the broadcast home for new animated series Fleabag Monkeyface. The 52 x 11 minute episodes are based on the popular books by Knife and Packer and will launch on CITV, ITV1 and GMTV1 in September 2011, aimed at 6-10 year olds. This fast paced, fearsomely funny series follows the gross out adventures of our eponymous hero and his two creators, Gene and Gerald, best friends and fans of all things grossly silly. Together they present a weekly TV show called Gross Out TV, a show they were given when its original presenter Dr Dirk Spamflex became evil and tried to take over the world with a monster called Earmageddon, created entirely from earwax!

The Mortal Instruments 4: City of Fallen Angels

By Cassandra Clare

Love, blood, betrayal and revenge – the stakes are higher than ever in the fourth book in the bestselling Mortal Instruments series.

Simon Lewis is having some trouble adjusting to his new life as a vampire, especially now that he hardly sees his best friend Clary, who is caught up in training to be a Shadowhunter – and spending time with her new boyfriend, Jace. Simon decides he needs a break and heads out of the city – only to discover that sinister events are following him. Realizing that the war they thought they'd won might not yet be over, Simon has to call on his Shadowhunter friends to save the day – if they can put their own splintering relationships on hold long enough to rise to the challenge.

- The Mortal Instruments series has sold over 1 million books. It has been on the New York Times bestseller list for six months straight
- The books have been translated into 19 languages and have also appeared on bestseller lists in the UK, US, Germany, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand and Canada
- Casting has begun for The Mortal Instruments and filming is expected to begin shortly
- Autumn consumer activity to include extensive targeted digital campaign, including facebook ads

Blessed

By Cynthia Leitich Smith

Teased by Tantalize? Possessed by Eternal? Then prepare yourself to be Blessed in New York Times best-selling author Cynthia Leitich Smith's latest dark fantasy.

Set in the same world of vampires and shape-shifters as Tantalize and Eternal, Blessed picks up where Tantalize left off and builds to a thrilling conclusion. Quincie is struggling with her undead status and with hybrid-werewolf-boyfriend Kieran, whilst trying to undo the damage wrought by the murderous Brad – who's slowly assuming the power of "Dracula Prime".

About Blessed, Cynthia says, "Who hasn't felt like their life is over? Like they're all alone, facing an infernal storm? That's when a little faith can save you, when you're fighting the hardest to believe in yourself."

I Want My Hat Back

By Jon Klassen

The bear's hat is gone, and he wants it back! When he asks the animals whether they have seen it, each animal says no. But just as the bear begins to despair, the deer asks an obvious question that sparks the bear's memory. Told completely in dialogue, this quirky take on the classic repetitive tale will have kids of all ages thrilled to be in on the joke.

Be Quiet, Mike!

By Leslie Patricelli

Even before he was born, Mike started drumming. Wherever he goes, his rhythms sing: bang, clank, goes the dustbin; tap, tap, go his pencils; and "BE QUIET, MIKE!" yells everyone around him. One day Mike sees a real drum set and puts his hands-on talent to work in a most impressive way. With the bold graphic style, Leslie Patricelli strikes a cymbal for active little monkeys everywhere.

Wish You Were Dead

By Todd Strasser

Second of three psychological techno thrillers with all the glamour of Gossip Girls and all the action of James Patterson. A blogger is listing the kids who should die; a killer is picking them off one at a time. In the small American town of Soundview, someone is blogging about the local high school kids, and the comments aren't kind. But are the posts cruel taunts or vicious threats? Then seventeen-year-old Lucy Cunningham goes missing after a night out, and the hunt is on to catch a killer.

"This is an author who really has his finger on the way kids think." The New York Times

"Carefully plotted. An impressive number of red herrings will keep readers guessing right up to the satisfying conclusion." Kirkus

A Monster Calls

By Siobhan Dowd and Patrick Ness

The monster showed up just after midnight. But it isn't the monster Conor's been expecting. He's been expecting the one from his nightmare, the one he's had nearly every night since his mother started her treatments, the one with the darkness and the wind and the screaming. This monster is something different. Something ancient, something wild. And it wants the most dangerous thing of all from Conor. It wants the truth.

Costa Award winner Patrick Ness spins a tale from the final idea of much-loved Carnegie Medal winner Siobhan Dowd, whose premature death from cancer prevented her from writing it herself. Darkly mischievous and painfully funny, A Monster Calls is an extraordinarily moving novel of coming to terms with loss from two of our finest writers for young adults.

Tantalize: Kieren's Story

By Cynthia Leitich Smith
Illustrated by Ming Doyle

Orphaned and in her uncle's care, fiercely independent Quincie may be the most over-achieving high-school student around, but even she has her hands full with a hybrid-werewolf boyfriend and the opening of Sanguini's, her hip vampire-themed restaurant, which turns out to have way more bite than she'd intended.

Paperback • 259 x 168mm • 192 pages • 14 years +

- For fans of Cynthia's three prose novels in this growing series: Tantalize, the best-selling Eternal, and Blessed – as well as for fans of Stephenie Meyer and other popular paranormal-romance authors
- The graphic novel format – and the emphasis on Kieren as protagonist – will attract boy readers and reluctant readers to the series
- Ming Doyle's hip, accessible sequential line art – and Sam Weber's striking cover art – make this a visually stunning package

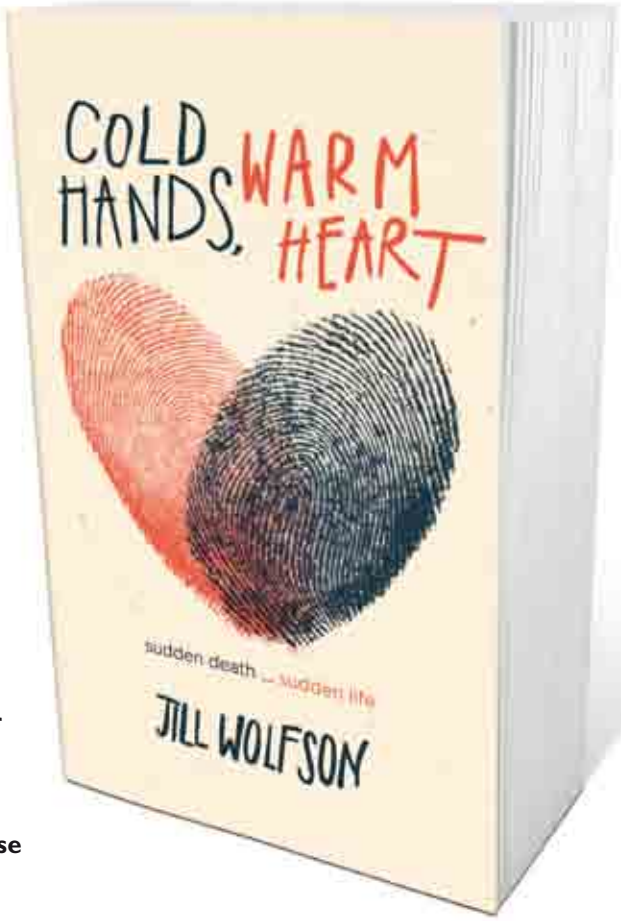
Cold Hands, Warm Heart
By Jill Wolfson



The lives of two teenage girls become literally connected after 14-year-old Amanda unexpectedly dies during a gymnastics meet and Dani receives Amanda's heart.

Fourteen-year-old Amanda is a competitive gymnast in perfect health. Fifteen-year-old Dani was born with her heart on the wrong side of her body; she's been in and out of hospital all her life. The two girls don't know each other – and never will. Yet their lives are about to collide. Amanda suffers a haematoma during a competition, and dies. The donation of her heart means renewed life for Dani and several other donor recipients. A fascinating and unputdownable story on an important and topical issue.

"Detailed, accurate descriptions of medical procedures are leavened with humour and sincerity, providing a powerful and multifaceted exploration of ethics, love and celebration of life." Kirkus Reviews

"Showing teens confronting unexpected emotions in both themselves and others, this novel is sure to please fans of realistic but gentle teen romance or medical stories." Booklist

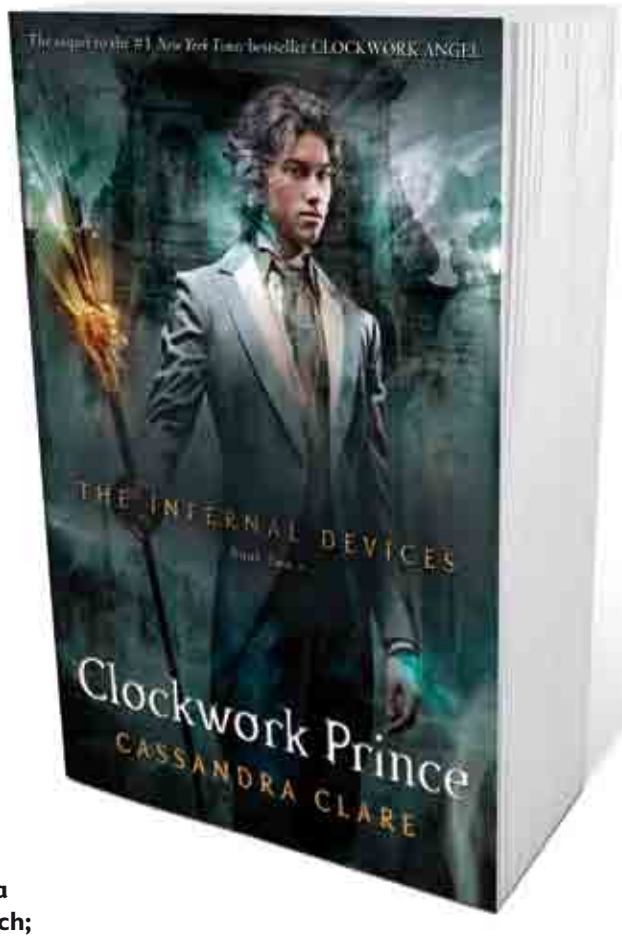
The Infernal Devices 2: Clockwork Prince

By Cassandra Clare



Second in the New York Times bestselling urban fantasy series set in Victorian London.

Still reeling from her terrifying confrontation with the Magister and her brother's betrayal, Tessa is drawn deeper into the Shadowhunter's dark underworld. In a desperate attempt to help her friends, Tessa tries to uncover the truth about the Magister only to encounter corrupt Shadowhunters more intent on burying the past – a past that holds the key not only to the enemy's motivations and weakness, but to the secret of what Tessa really is and what she was born to do. Meanwhile, Tessa's feelings for Jem and Will are growing more complicated, and soon she is forced to acknowledge that any choice she makes will either save the Shadowhunters of London – or end them for ever.

- The first book in the series, Clockwork Angel, debuted at number one on the New York Times Bestseller list and spent ten weeks in the charts
- Autumn consumer activity to include extensive targeted digital campaign, including facebook ads

"It's got everything; set in Victorian London but with a usefully American heroine – feisty and attractive, natch; it features the Nephilim, a category of quasi-angelic beings and some interesting vampires . . . a cracking read."
