Amy Green Teen Agony Queen: Boy Trouble

By Sarah Webb

Meet Amy Green – teenage agony aunt extraordinaire!

When Amy's seventeen-year-old Aunt Clover lands a dream job giving advice for teen mag The Goss Amy quickly realizes that this is no ordinary column. Clover – being Clover – doesn't just want to answer her readers' letters, she wants to solve their problems ... personally. From stamping out malicious rumours to handling first kisses and creating the perfect Bebo page, the pair bring happiness to many unhappy girls. But when Amy falls for the cute boy in her art class, she finds she's in need of a little help of her own...

- A brilliant new series for girls aged 10–13 years from a talented new author.
- Amy Green will find a place in the hearts of teenage girls everywhere, tackling some of the most troubling teen issues, from divorce and step-parents to romance and friendships in crisis.

Illustrated Classics

With their magnificent words and glorious pictures, these exquisitely designed books will be read and re-read, again and again. The classics have never looked so good!

Classic Poetry: An Illustrated Collection

Selected by Michael Rosen, Illustrated by Paul Howard

This collection of poetry, featuring Paul Howard's astonishingly varied illustrations, includes over eighty of the most memorable poems written in the English language, from William Blake's "The Tyger" to Lewis Carroll's "Jabberwocky". Each poem is selected by Children's Laureate Michael Rosen, and accompanied by his lively biographical sketches, making this a classic collection indeed.

Judy Moody Goes to College

By Megan McDonald

The latest in the fabulous Judy Moody series, which has sold more than five million books worldwide

Judy Moody doesn't want a private maths tutor, until she meets her – a cool college student with an uber-funky sense of style. Pretty soon, Judy's bad math-i-tude turns into a radical glad-i-tude. Say goodbye to Judy Moody, old skool third-grader, and say hello to Ms College.
