Ten Things I Can Do To Help My World

Melanie Walsh
9781406320299
PB • £6.99

This cleverly interactive book uses cut pages to demonstrate ten simple actions that even very young people can do to help the environment, like turning the tap off when you brush your teeth, walking to school and using paper on both sides. Age 3+

The Wild Woods

Simon James
9781406308457
PB • £5.99

Simon James is an award-winning author and illustrator, many of whose warm, gentle stories explore a child's unique relationship with nature. His ecological message - lightly and amusingly conveyed - is that the best thing is to enjoy nature and leave it alone. Age 3+

Dear Greenpeace

Simon James
9781406308488
PB • £5.99

My Green Day

Melanie Walsh
9781406319125
HB • £10.00

Publishing in April 2010
From composting leftovers to packing the shopping in reusable bags, lift the die-cut pages and reveal ten simple green activities for young children to do between breakfast and bedtime. Age 3+

Window

Jeannie Baker
9780744594867
PB • £5.99

Jeannie Baker is renowned both for her skilfully textured collages and for the environmental consciousness guiding her work. These elements come together in a wonderfully effective picture book showing the initially subtle, but ultimately irrevocable, impact that human beings have on the world outside the window. Age 3+

Belonging

Jeannie Baker
9781406305487
PB • £5.99

A wonderful wordless picture book in which a little girl plants a garden and, as it - and she - grows, her drab city neighbourhood is transformed. The message in the title is that we need to bring back a variety of local plants to our communities and that we belong to the land, not it to us. Age 3+

Let's Save the Animals

Frances Barry
9781406312492
HB • £9.99
Publishing in February 2010
Frances Barry introduces conservation to very young children with ten endangered animals. They are illustrated in her bold, charming style with flaps on each page so children can interact with the animals as they learn about them.
Age 2+

Ape

Martin Jenkins
Illustrated by Vicky White
9781406319293
PB • £6.99
"There are five kinds of great ape in the world and four of them are very rare." Filled with Vicky White's stunning portraits of orangutans, chimps, bonobos and gorillas, the book's gentle conservation message is that we - the fifth ape - can be a problem for them all. Extraordinary art by a talented young illustrator. Age 4+

Teach Your Granny to Text

We Are What We Do
9781406320718
PB • £10.00
The movement for social change We Are What We Do has teamed up with over 4000 children to create 30 actions that could change the world. From teaching your granny to text and walking your dad, to cooking a meal, sharing a story, recycling your toys and paying a compliment, this stylish, energetic and inspiring book is full of small things that make a big difference!
Age 4+

The Hidden Forest

Jeannie Baker
9780744578768
PB • £5.99
Whilst on a fishing trip, Ben is frustrated by the small fish he catches and recklessly pulls them off the line, leaving them to die. Yet when Sophie takes him snorkelling, he marvels at the underwater world, brilliantly brought to life by Jeannie Baker's collages.
Age 4+

Where the Forest Meets the Sea

Jeannie Baker
9780744513059
PB • £5.99
We follow a boy's imaginative journey through the rainforest, walking alongside dinosaurs, aboriginal children and ancient trees. But, looking into the future, the forest's beauty and sense of myth has been replaced by roads and hotels. The story's beautiful collages were created by Jeannie Baker using natural materials collected on visits to Australia's Daintree wilderness. Age 4+

Mia's Story

Michael Foreman
9781406305333
PB • £5.99
This lovely picture book, set in Chile and subtitled A Sketchbook of Hopes and Dreams, tells of a little girl in a rural slum who unexpectedly finds a way out of poverty by growing flowers and selling them in the big city. Age 4+

Ice Bear

Nicola Davies
Illustrated by Gary Blythe
9781406313048
PB • £5.99
9781406313031
PB & CD • £6.99

The Inuit have discovered so much about their own environment - including how best to hunt for food and how to protect themselves from blizzards - from the 'Nanuk' or Polar Bear. This beautifully illustrated book teaches younger children that we can learn from the animal kingdom, and that we should "share our world with gratitude and pride". Age 4+

Big Blue Whale

Nicola Davies
Illustrated by Nick Maland
9781406312577
PB • £5.99
9781406312607
PB & CD • £6.99

This beautifully illustrated story introduces early readers to the majesty of the blue whale as she moves across the ocean, searches for food, and feeds her young. However, despite being thirty metres long and weighing as same as 115 giraffes, they are still incredibly vulnerable to extinction. Age 4+

Why the Animals Came to Town

Michael Foreman
9781406318012
HB • £11.99

Publishing in January 2010
The tramp, tramp, tramp of marching feet, louder and louder, down our street! That's the sound of the animals of the world bringing an urgent message for us all. A powerful environmental plea from award-winning illustrator Michael Foreman. Age 4+

White Owl, Barn Owl

Nicola Davies
Illustrated by Michael Foreman
9781406313123
PB • £5.99
9781406313116
PB & CD • £6.99

Watch nature quietly, respectfully and from a distance is the message in this book, as a young girl builds a nest-box for a wild barn owl. Readers are also encouraged to go out and spot owls, with some useful tips on making nest-boxes of their own. Age 4+

Surprising Sharks

Nicola Davies
Illustrated by James Croft
9781406312874
PB • £5.99
9781406312881
PB & CD • £6.99

A witty, stylishly illustrated Nature Storybook with a strong conservation message: "every year about six people are killed by sharks but people kill 100 million sharks." Comes with a CD with music and extra facts. Age 4+

Gaia Warriors

Nicola Davies
9781406312348
PB • £9.99

Publishing in November 2009
With an afterword by James Lovelock, the creator of the Gaia theory, this is an extraordinary call to arms - the book on climate change for the 11+ age group. Author Nicola Davies explains the science and interviews "gaia warriors" all over the world working to change the way we live on this planet, whether it's in the field of food, travel, fashion, architecture, protest, the rainforest or energy. Age 11+

Me, All Alone, at the End of the World

M.T. Anderson
Illustrated by Kevin Hawkes
9780744585551
HB • £10.99

"Swoop for today and forget your tomorrow" says a "Professional Visionary" while he fills the once idyllic End of the World with people, noise, and carefree fun. A charming book, that teaches the reader about change and consequence, while urging them not to forget about tomorrow. Age 6+

This Morning I Met a Whale

Michael Morpurgo
Illustrated by Christian Birmingham
9781406315592
PB • £5.99

On an early morning walk along the Thames a young boy meets a whale who gives him a special message: humans must mend the damage they are doing to the planet before it is too late. Based on real events in 2006, this is a thought-provoking call to action from one of Britain's best-loved authors, beautifully illustrated by Christian Birmingham. Age 7+
