The Girl Who Fell Beneath Fairyland and Led the Revels There

By Catherynne M. Valente

Let the Revels begin! September returns to Fairyland after her first bestselling, breathtaking adventure there. The second in a series that seems destined to become a modern classic, from a multi-award-winning author.

- Find out more, watch the trailer and read extracts at: www.valentefairyland.com

“One of the great young-adult fantasy diptychs since Lewis Carroll. Valente has the rare gift of making new myths, literate and charming and beautiful stories.” Lev Grossman, Time, Top 10 Fiction Books of 2012

Praise for The Girl Who Circumnavigated Fairyland in a Ship of Her Own Making:

“An Alice in Wonderland for the 21st century . . . So effortless, so vivid, so funny. Every page has a phrase or observation to savour and her characters are wondrous creations.” Sunday Telegraph

“A whole esoteric world of whimsy – Alice meets the Wizard of Oz meets the Persephone story with a whiff of Narnia.” Independent on Sunday

Goblin Secrets

By William Alexander

Welcome to the wildly mysterious town of Zombay, where witches walk on clockwork legs, acting is outlawed, masks are magical, and one brave and spirited young boy is about to set out with a lawless troupe of goblins, on a quest to find his missing brother . . . A fast-paced story about love and loss, set in a fertile fantasy-land full of amazing characters, Goblin Secrets sparkles brilliantly in the imagination.

- Winner of the 2012 US National Book Award for Young People's Literature
- Perfect for fans of The Spiderwick Chronicles and Septimus Heap

“I didn't want the book to end! The author's imagination is both huge and original, taking us to a truly new place, rich with lively, vivid scenes, fascinating people, and marvellous inventions. And he tells his fast-paced story in language that's a pleasure in itself – subtle, tricky, funny, beautiful.” Ursula K. Le Guin, author of The Wizard of Earthsea

“Will Alexander's books are a secret pleasure. Funny, smart, and gorgeously written, they are both a pleasure and instructive. When I grow up, I want to be Will.” Jane Yolen, author of The Pit Dragon Chronicles

“Goblin Secrets is a knockout.” Peter S. Beagle, author of The Last Unicorn

The Dead Girls Detective Agency

By Suzy Cox

Solving the mystery behind your death can be murder

When Charlotte wakes up at Hotel Atessa, home to murdered New York teenagers and official HQ of The Dead Girls Detective Agency, she discovers that being a ghost comes with more rules than high school. And she isn't at all sure about her fellow afterlife companions . . . But the only way out of this limbo is to work out who killed her, or she'll have to spend eternity here. The question is, who could hate her enough to want her dead?

Suzy Cox is Deputy Editor of Cosmopolitan Magazine and lives in London.

- The first in a fresh and sassy new teen series
- Confirmed reviews to run in Teen Now, Bliss, We Love Pop, handbag.com, Mizz and review and competition on Sugarscape.com

“You'll love it if . . . you enjoyed a good Nancy Drew mystery growing up, and are craving a New York City story outside of Carrie Bradshaw's diary . . . a hilarious ghost story with witty one-liners and memorable characters.” Seventeen.com

“Funny with lots of mystery . . . witty and smart.” Bookswithbite.net

The Cryptid Files: Loch Ness

By Jean Flitcroft

Vanessa Day is not impressed when her father brings his girlfriend on a family holiday to Scotland. Vanessa had been looking forward to exploring the Loch and maybe even seeing the Loch Ness monster. Vanessa has a special interest in cryptids – creatures that may exist in nature, but whose existence has not yet been proven – and Nessie is the most famous cryptid of all. The first book in the series, this is a magical, adventurous and touching story.

Taking Flight

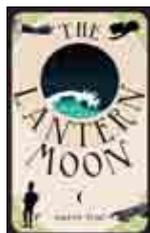

By Sheena Wilkinson

The only riding fifteen-year-old Declan has ever done is joyriding, so when he's forced to stay with his snobby cousin Vicky, he's shocked to find himself falling in love with horses. But Vicky would do anything to keep this grubby hood away from her precious showjumper, Flight. Gritty, moving and brilliantly written, Taking Flight is a fast-paced story of courage overcoming jealousy, and that rare thing: a book set in Belfast that is not about the 'Troubles'.

The Lantern Moon

By Maeve Friel

1811, Shropshire. Life isn't easy for the Spears children: Annie is a maid at Dinham House where Lucien Bonaparte is on parole; William works for a mad hatter and their little sister is a glove-maker. When a fire destroys their home and William and Annie are accused of theft, they take to the hills with Sam, the chimney sweep, trying to make their way to the sea. But great danger and deceptions lie ahead . . . A wonderfully rich, atmospheric story.

Prim Improper

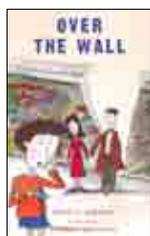

By Deirdre Sullivan

Primrose Leary, aged 13. Likes: her pet rat, Roderick; her best friend, Joel; being a little bit different (but not in the weird different sense – she wouldn't like to be the only girl who always smelled of ham, or anything). Dislikes: living with her moustachioed dad; the boy-school that Joel's toddled off to without her; not having her mum around any more. Hilarious and clever, Deirdre Sullivan's is a refreshing new voice that will appeal to fans of Sarah Webb and Louise Rennison.

Wormwood Gate

By Katherine Farmar

Aisling and Julie are bickering when they are almost run over by a white horse with a red mane. Something strange is going on: the city looks changed; three castles for three Queens blaze on the horizon and pigeons and seagulls are at war with one another. Can they find the Wormwood Gate and get back to Mortal Realms? And could it be possible that they like each other more than they first thought? This urban fantasy debut with a sense of humour and a subtle love story sparkles with all the beauty and strangeness of Alice in Wonderland.

Monkey Wars

By Richard Kurti

A remarkable and unflinching examination of the politics of power.

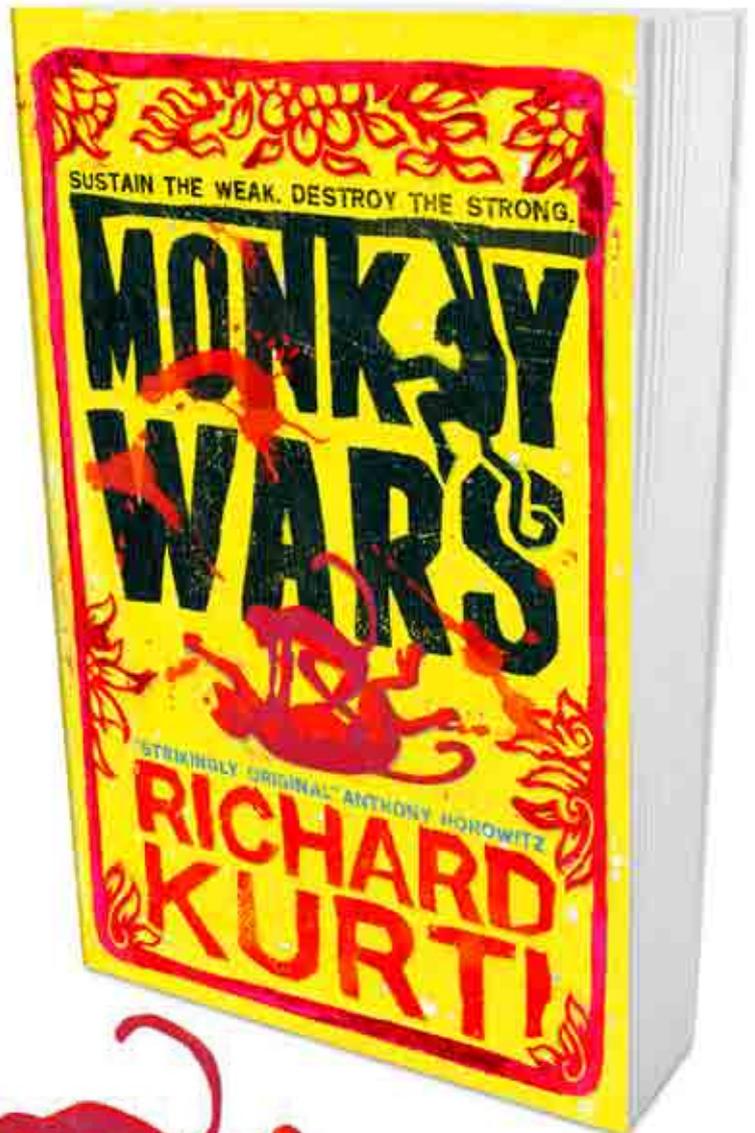

When the Langur monkey troop rises to power on the streets of Kolkata, it is at a price. A brutal massacre drives the Rhesus troop out of their home and forces them to embark on a dangerous journey. But one Langur monkey, Mico, is prepared to stand up to the tyrannical Langur regime and fight for truth, friendship and love. As Mico uncovers the secrets of the corrupt Langur leadership, he quickly realizes he is playing a dangerous game. And when monkeys turn on each other, there can be no survivors . . .

Amy's Three Best Things

By Philippa Pearce, Illustrated by Helen Craig

When Amy goes to stay with Granny, she takes her three best things. On the first night, when she misses her family, one of them turns into a magic carpet and flies her home so she can see that they are all right. The second night, her horse takes her back. But on the third night, when she sails home in her magic boat, her family aren't there. Amy cries all the way back to Granny's, only to find that they have set off early to visit her. A wonderfully reassuring bedtime book about staying away from home for the very first time by two major children's book talents.

Blame My Brain

By Nicola Morgan, illustrated by Andy Baker

A comprehensive guide to the biological mysteries that lie behind teenage behaviour. Nicola Morgan's carefully researched and humorous examination of the ups and downs of the teenage brain has chapters dealing with powerful emotions, the need for more sleep, the urge to take risks, the difference between genders and the reasons behind addiction or depression. The revised edition of this classic book contains important new research, including information about the discovery of mirror neurons and their effect on the teenage brain.

• Shortlisted for the 2006 Royal Society's Aventis Prize for Science Books

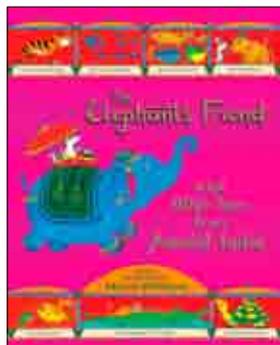

"I only wish that this book had been around when dealing with my own teenager's antisocial behaviour." TES

"It is very rare that an author succeeds in writing a book for teenagers which is also a 'must read' for their parents and teachers." The Scotsman

Hooley Higgins and the Awards of Awesomeness

By Steve Voake, illustrated by Emma Dodson

The sixth instalment of the popular Hooley Higgins series for 7-9s – perfect for fans of Mr Gum, Horrid Henry and Wimpy Kid.

Why does Twig NEVER win an award? In school assembly everyone else (even Basbo) wins Mr Croft's Awards Certificates – Sarah-Jane Silverton has so many that her parents have actually built an extension to display them all. There's only one solution: Hooley and Will decide to invent their own AWARDS OF AWESOMENESS, strategically tailored to Twig's...erm...talents. But one mayhem football game and one Green 'innovation' later, Twig is still tragically prizeless. Will he EVER be Awarded an Award, Awesome or otherwise?

The Sleeping Baobab Tree

By Paula Leyden

When twelve-year-old Fred wakes up with a sense of foreboding, his friend Bul-Boo insists it is just in his imagination. However, the feeling grows stronger when Fred's terrifying great-granny, Nokokulu, asks him to accompany her on a trip to an ancient burial site. When Bul-Boo hears about patients missing from her mother's AIDS clinic, and when one of the patients turns out to be Fred's aunt, the children view Nokokulu's trip in a different light. Could the two events be linked? As the friends and the old woman journey into the heart of Zambia, each of them hopes to right wrongs, both past and present – but dark clouds are gathering and ancient magic is in the air. Endorsed by Amnesty International.

Getting Over Garrett Delaney

By Abby McDonald

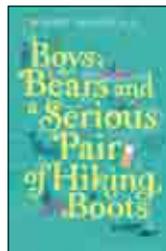

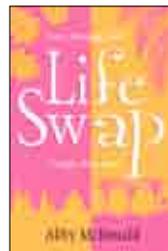

Can Sadie overcome her unrequited crush for good? Abby McDonald serves up her trademark wit and wisdom in a hilarious new novel.

Sadie is in love – with her best friend, Garrett Delaney, but Garrett has been oblivious to Sadie's feelings. For two long, painful years, Sadie has been Garrett's constant companion, sharing his taste in everything from tragic Russian literature to '80s indie rock. When Garrett leaves for a summer retreat, Sadie is sure that absence will make his heart grow fonder – until he calls to say that he's fallen in love with another girl! Heartbroken, Sadie realizes it's time for a total Garrett detox. Aided by a barista job, new friends and a self-help guide, Sadie embarks on a summer of reinvention full of laughter, meltdowns . . . and a double shot of love.

Little Prince:
An Epic Tale from Ancient Iraq

By Kathy Henderson, illustrated by Jane Ray

A fiction format reissue of Lugalbanda for confident readers. From the land we now call Iraq comes the story of a young prince's extraordinary adventures. On his way to war with his older brothers, Lugalbanda meets the magical Anzu bird, who gives him the power to be strong, tireless and run like lightning. Lugalbanda uses his power to resolve the war peacefully and goes on to become a great ruler. Older than the Bible, the Koran and Greek and Roman myths, this story was discovered over 150 years ago written on ancient clay tablets buried in the desert and it was 100 more years before scholars managed to decode the text.

Big Dog Bonnie

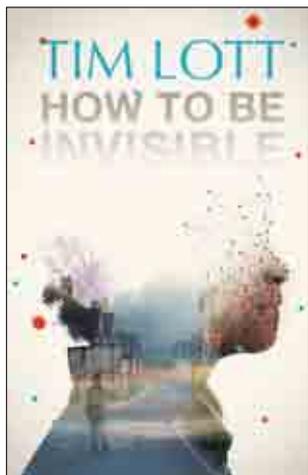

Harry longs for a dog to help him cope with all the problems he faces in his new town. His best friend is an imaginary hound called Prince – big, strong, brown-and-black mixed. So when his mum gets a real dog called Bonnie – tiny, white and fluffy – Harry wants nothing to do with the embarrassing pooch...

Best Dog Bonnie

The dog show is in town, and Harry's mum has a worrying glint in her eye. Wouldn't Bonnie look perfect done up as a showdog, with a big pink bow in her hair? Before you can say "Crufts", or Harry can groan "Oh no", Bonnie is whisked down to the Millionhairs Dog Grooming Parlour to be fluffed to perfection.

Black Helicopters

By Blythe Woolston

A powerful psychological thriller in which the reader views the world through the eyes of an abused but committed killer.

No records of Valley exist. Her life has been kept secret so that she can be used to fight her father's paranoid war. Last night she recorded her farewell message; this morning she strapped on a vest of explosives. But the plan went wrong and she needs help. Eric and his little brother become pawns in Valley's endgame. They have every reason to live; she has every reason not to. Can they disarm a girl raised to be a weapon? Blythe Woolston infuses her white-knuckle narrative with dark humour and a keen psychological eye. Alternating past-present vignettes in prose as tightly wound as the springs of a clock and as masterfully plotted as a game of chess, she ratchets the pacing right up to the final, explosive end.

The Power of Five: Raven's Gate – The Graphic Novel

By Anthony Horowitz and Tony Lee, illustrated by Dom Reardon, Lee O'Connor

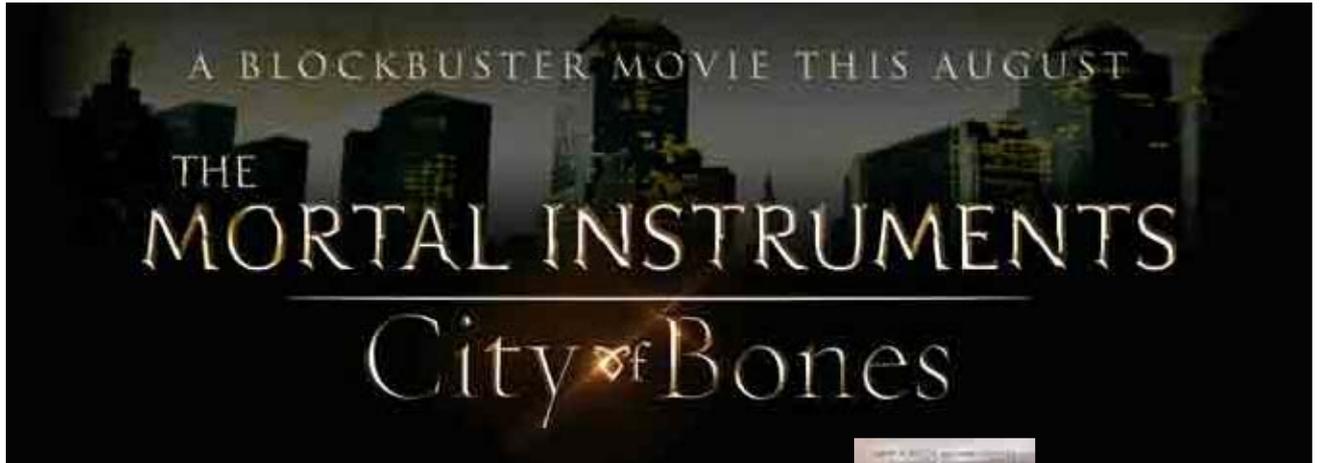

A stylish re-issue of the atmospheric graphic-novel adaptation of the Number 1 bestseller Raven's Gate, from the creator of Alex Rider. Sent to Yorkshire on a rehabilitation programme, Matt finds himself in the midst of a conspiracy of witchcraft and murder. The Old Ones – monstrous godlike beings once banished from our world – are trying to return. Matt is about to discover that he alone stands between the forces of evil and the annihilation of humanity. . . Featuring striking, high-contrast black-and-white art, this distinctive graphic novel captures the brooding atmosphere of the bestselling book.

Lead Titles

Based on Cassandra Clare's bestselling young adult novel, The Mortal Instruments: City of Bones movie follows the journey of Clary Fray (Mirror Mirror's Lily Collins), a seemingly ordinary teenager who meets the mysterious Jace Wayland (The Twilight Saga's Jamie Campbell Bower) and discovers that she is in fact a descendant from a long line of Shadowhunters, a secret cadre of half-angel warriors locked in an ancient battle to protect our world from assorted demons; a battle largely unseen by human eyes.

- The Mortal Instruments: City of Bones movie made the list of "10 things that will excite in 2013" in USA Today.
- Since the film was announced UK book sales have tripled.
- The Mortal Instruments series has over 22 million books in print. It has been sold in more than thirty countries and has appeared on bestseller lists in the UK, USA, Germany, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand and Canada.
- Striking posters for spectacular window and instore displays.
- Fantastic "super-fan" activity packs and goodies to host your very own Mortal Instruments events.

Goldilocks and the Three Dinosaurs

By Mo Willems

A hugely entertaining and riotous re-telling of a classic fairytale from one of the most original and funny voices in children's books today.

Once upon a time, there were three hungry dinosaurs: Papa Dinosaur, Mama Dinosaur and... a Dinosaur who happened to be visiting from Norway. One day they decided to tidy up their house nice and neat, make their beds up all cosy and comfortable, prepare delicious hot chocolate pudding of varying temperatures, place their chairs just so, and go... SOMEPLACE ELSE. They were definitely NOT setting up a trap for some poorly supervised little girl called Goldilocks who may wander by... A new take on an age-old classic that will ensure LOTS of giggles.

Bears in Beds

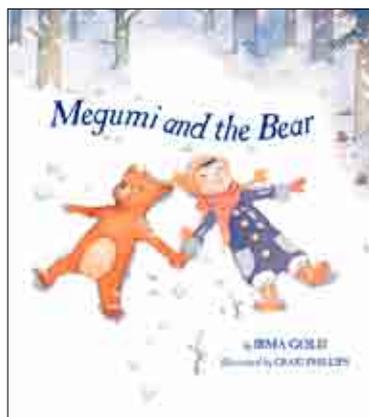

By Shirley Parenteau, illustrated by David Walker

It's time to go to sleep, time for Big Brown Bear to tuck all four little bears into their beds. Then he's ready to climb into his own bed and turn out the light. Five warm beds, holding five sleepy bears until... a sound goes whoosh in the middle of the night, and the bears wake up in a fright. Will they ever get back into bed? Luckily, Big Brown Bear knows just what to do! A fun, rhyming read-aloud that parents will love – and tired little cubs will be happy to snuggle up with.

The Truth about My Success

By Dyan Sheldon

Paloma is growing into a brat: the bad publicity could mean the end of the show and the end of the lavish lifestyle her family and her agent are accustomed to. Then her agent bumps into 16 year old Oona Giness and, struck by the resemblance, decides to switch Oona for Paloma and trick the wayward brat into going off to a boot camp in the desert. Oona, who lives in a run-down apartment block, agrees in the hope that it'll turn her life around. She quickly discovers that Hollywood is not for her, though Hollywood much prefers the new Paloma to the old one! And when Paloma finds out she's been tricked, she breaks out of the camp and heads for home – and revenge.

The Name of the Blade, Book One: The Night Itself

By Zoë Marriott

Ancient Japanese gods and monsters are unleashed on modern-day London in this epic trilogy from an acclaimed fantasy writer.

Would you sacrifice your soul mate to save the world? When Mio steals the family's katana – a priceless ancestral sword – from the attic, she just wants to spice up a fancy-dress costume. But the katana is much more than some dusty antique and her actions unleash a terrible, ancient evil onto the streets of London. Soon Shinobu, a fearless warrior boy, appears to protect Mio – and threatens to steal her heart. With the gods and monsters of Japanese myth stalking her and her friends, Mio realizes that if she cannot keep the sword safe, and learn to control its legendary powers, she will lose not only her own life . . . but the love of a lifetime.

Surfacing

By Nora Raleigh Baskin

A deeply moving portrait of grief, blame and forgiveness, and of finding the courage to confront your ghosts. Maggie Paris is a star on the school swimming team, but she also has an uncanny ability to draw out people's deepest truths, even when they don't intend to share them. It's reached a point where most of her classmates avoid her. Even Maggie's parents seem wary of her as the deep secret at the heart of their devastated family slowly unravels and Maggie learns a further truth about the circumstances surrounding her sister's death.

WELCOME TO THE DARK SIDE OF ANTHONY HOROWITZ

FIVE GATEKEEPERS ONE FORCE AGAINST EVIL

THE POWER OF FIVE

Oblivion

By Anthony Horowitz

The epic fifth and final instalment in the bestselling fantasy series The Power of Five.

The earth has almost been destroyed by the forces of darkness. Those who have survived are barely human, drifting in a world ruled by famine, terrorism and war. Any last hope now rests with five extraordinary teenagers: the Gatekeepers.

The Five must find each other and make a final stand against Chaos, King of the Old Ones... but Chaos is everywhere. He calls to them from Antarctica where he is gathering his forces, preparing for a last battle in the frozen wasteland of Oblivion. And one of the Five has turned traitor. The others know that without him they cannot win.

Lead Title Character Series

Step through the front door of the Little Yellow House and enjoy a visual feast of imagination and fun with Polly Dunbar's charming series, Tilly and Friends now airing on CBeebies.

Tilly and Friends: Listen to Me!

By Polly Dunbar

Tilly and her friends are singing the Wiggle-Wiggle Woo song – but bossy Pru wants all the attention. In her bid to steal the limelight by singing as loudly as possible she manages to lose her voice. Where can it have gone? Tilly and her friends search high and low, but it's not under the cushions, or even in the toy box. Just when it looks as if Pru's voice may be lost for ever, Hector has a brilliant idea. But could Pru's voice really be in a jar of honey?!

Tilly and Friends: The Best Day Ever

By Polly Dunbar

Tilly and her friends are having a play day at home. There's painting, dressing up, tiddlywinks . . . and all sorts of sandwiches for lunch. When Tilly realizes this is the Best Day Ever, she and her friends want to make sure they'll always remember it and they decide to make a scrapbook. But how can they squeeze so many big memories into one small book?

Tilly and Friends: Let's Get Wheeling!

By Polly Dunbar

Tilly's tricycle is too small for her, but it's a perfect fit for Hector. There's a toy car for Pru, a skateboard for Doodle, a scooter for Tiptoe, and Tumpty has a smart set of wheels on his four roller-skates! Everyone's having wheelie good fun – but why isn't Tilly riding her new red bike? The friends soon realize that Tilly might need a helping hand to get started on two wheels so that she can join in with the wheelie day too.

Tilly and Friends: Star Party

By Polly Dunbar

Tilly and her friends are camping out in the garden when Tiptoe spots a lone blue star twinkling in the sky. Tiptoe twinkles back at him – but the star won't come down, and even Pru's high heels don't make Tiptoe tall enough to go up. It looks as though the blue star is going to be stuck without a playmate – until Tilly checks in her Space book and discovers that the little blue star might already have some friends of his own . . .

Brodie

by Joy Cowley, illustrated by Chris Mousdale

A sensitive story about coming to terms with the death of a friend. Brodie is always making people laugh. He wiggles his ears, yodels like a country singer and tells far-out jokes. He's a brilliant artist, too: he draws planes and helicopters because he wants to be a pilot. Everyone at school knows that Brodie is ill, and when he's in hospital they all send him cards. But they never think he'll die. When he does, it's a shock and it hurts – and the hurt doesn't go away. It does get smaller, though, and while his friends don't stop missing him they know it means that Brodie is still alive in their hearts. Invaluable to anyone, of any age, trying to cope with the reality – or countenance the possibility – of bereavement.

Silver Buttons

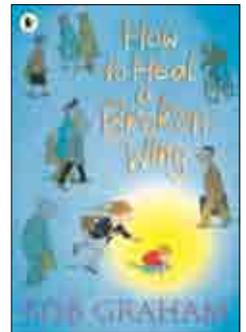

By Bob Graham

At 9.59 on Thursday morning, Jodie draws a duck. Just as she is about to add one final silver button to the duck's boots, her little brother takes his first step. At this exact same moment, a man buys bread, a soldier leaves home, a baby is being born . . . Bob Graham beautifully captures a world vision in one solitary moment. The idea that we are all alone, and yet all as one in the world, is drawn with huge sensitivity and poetry. Endorsed by Amnesty International.

- Bob Graham's books are multi-award winning and have sold over two million copies worldwide!
- Max won the 2000 Smarties Gold Medal; Jethro Byrde – Fairy Child won the Kate Greenaway Medal 2002; April Underhill, Tooth Fairy was shortlisted for the Kate Greenaway Medal 2011; and A Bus Called Heaven, endorsed by Amnesty International UK, won the 2012 Children's Book Council of Australia Picture Book of the Year Award

The Matchbox Diary

By Paul Fleischman, illustrated by Bagram Ibatoulline

When a little girl visits her great-grandfather at his curio-filled home, she chooses an unusual object to learn about: an old cigar box. What she finds inside surprises her: a collection of matchboxes making up her great-grandfather's diary, containing objects she can hold in her hand, each one evoking a memory. Together they tell of his journey from Italy to a new country, before he could read and write. A breathtaking immigration tale with appeal across generations.

Walking the Bear

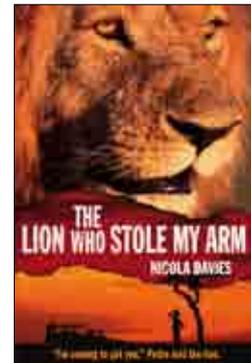

By Nicola Davies

Zaki lives in northern India. His father mistreats his wife, his children and the family's dancing bears. Zaki wants all the bears to be free. With the help of his mother and sister, the old mother bear is taken to a sanctuary for retired bears while Zaki runs away to the forest with the cubs. There he spends months teaching them how to survive in the wild. When he returns, he finds his father's rule has finally been overturned, his mother has a new way of making a living – and Zaki and his sister can go to school at last.

Vango

By Timothée de Fombelle, translated by Sarah Ardizzone

A gripping mystery-adventure set in the 1930s' interwar period about a character desperately searching for his identity.

Raised by a nanny in Sicily, Vango grows up with one friend, a priest Zefiro, who lives in a monastery hidden from sight. On reaching adulthood, Vango decides to follow in Zefiro's steps, but at the moment he is taking his holy orders in Paris, he is falsely accused of a crime and has to go on the run. This is a breathless and highly cinematic story that follows Vango across Europe from Stromboli to Nazi Germany, from Scotland to the Soviet Union, crossing the paths of arms traffickers, Russian spies and even Stalin.

See You at Harry's

By Jo Knowles

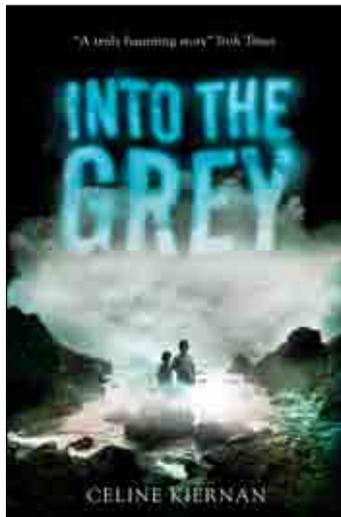

Twelve-year-old Fern feels invisible. It seems as though everyone in her family has better things to do than pay attention to her. Mum helps Dad run "Harry's," the family restaurant; Sarah is taking a gap year, and Holden pretends that Mum and Dad and everyone else doesn't know he's gay. If it wasn't for Ran, Fern's best friend, there'd be nowhere to turn. Ran's mantra, "All will be well," is soothing in a way that nothing else seems to be. But then tragedy strikes – and Fern feels not only more alone than ever, but also responsible for the accident that has wrenched her family apart. All will not be well. Or at least all will never be the same.
