PICTURES AND WORDS

hold the power to express and ignite ideas. And the value of inspiring young readers to engage with the world around them, develop their thoughts, feelings, unique identities – and their own forms of expression – is as important now as ever.

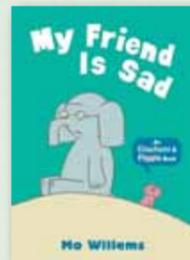

“The art of telling and reading – depicting and interpreting – a narrative visually is not only important, but is also integral to human development.”
Valerie Coghlan

“Visual literacy is a skill for life as well as a gateway for endless pleasure.”
Wendy Cooling

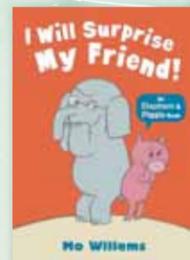

“Comics are the perfect invitation for kids to awaken a love for reading pictures and words and exploring the vivid storyworlds both can conjure.”
Paul Gravett

Collected here is the complete Walker catalogue of picture-strip stories, comics, graphic novels, graphic novellas, retellings and classic tales for readers of all ages, tastes and abilities.

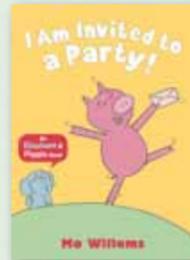

These stories are imaginative, entertaining, adventurous, thought-provoking and relevant to readers today, and will help nurture a life-long love of reading, writing and drawing.
