Chalkline
By Jane Mitchell

The moving story of a Kashmiri boy soldier, from a prize-winning Irish author.

It's an ordinary morning at nine-year-old Rafiq's school in rural Kashmir when the silence of dawn prayers is ripped apart by gunfire. Soldiers of the Kashmir Freedom Fighters have raided the village in search of new recruits – they scrawl a line in chalk across the schoolroom wall, and any boy whose height reaches the line will be taken to fight. Rafiq is tall for his age – the first boy to cross the chalkline into a life of brutality and terrorism. This is the story of Rafiq's transformation from child to boy soldier, as he is indoctrinated into the cause of fanatical belief. But his family have not forgotten him; when he can no longer recognize himself, they remember the boy he was, and reach out a hand of redemption as he spirals towards a final act of atrocity.

• Endorsed by Amnesty International UK as contributing to a better understanding of human rights and the values that underpin them.

• Jane Mitchell is the author of When Stars Stop Spinning, which won the Bisto Book of the Year in 1994.
Toby Alone
By Timothée de Fombelle and François Place, translated by Sarah Ardizzone
An awards-laden adventure of heroism, friendship and survival – with a powerful ecological message – set in a captivating miniature world.

Toby Lolness is just one and a half millimetres tall, and he’s the most wanted person in his world, the Great Oak Tree. When Toby’s father makes a ground-breaking discovery about the heart of the Tree’s energy, he also realizes that exploiting it could permanently damage their world. The family refuse to reveal the secret, but one man is determined to get hold of the forbidden knowledge ... and his plan is to destroy the Tree. Now Toby’s parents have been imprisoned and sentenced to death. Only Toby has managed to escape, but for how long?

Toby’s world is under greater threat than ever before. A giant crater has been dug right into the centre of the Tree, moss and lichen invade the branches, and one tyrant controls it all. Leo Blue, once Toby’s best friend, now his worst enemy, is holding Elisha prisoner, hunting the Grass People with merciless force, capturing all who stand in his way, inflicting a life of poverty and fear. But returning after several years among the Grass People, Toby will fight back. And this time he’s not alone. A resistance is forming…

Toby and the Secrets of the Tree
By Timothée de Fombelle and François Place, translated by Sarah Ardizzone
This eagerly anticipated sequel to the award-winning Toby Alone is a gripping conclusion to a thrilling adventure of heroism and friendship, set in an unforgettable miniature world.
Deathwatch
by Nicola Morgan

A chilling and skilful psychological thriller, from the award-winning author of Fleshmarket and The Highwayman’s Footsteps.

Someone is watching Cat McPherson, but does she even realize that she’s being stalked? A talented athlete, she’s too busy with the pressures of training and deciding whether she really wants to run for a living. The trouble is, soon she will have to run for her life…

Poppy Fields Murder Mysteries

Zombies? Spooks? Or just plain murder? Poppy Fields is on the case! Introducing the first two titles in a brand-new series of brilliantly addictive murder mysteries from acclaimed writer Tanya Landman.

Mondays Are Murder
by Tanya Landman

When Poppy Fields goes on an activity holiday to a remote Scottish island, she is looking forward to a week of climbing, hill-walking and horse riding. But things take a bad turn when their instructor has what appears to be a fatal abseiling accident. When Poppy discovers that his rope was cut, and more of the instructors start to have “accidents”, she and best friend Graham suspect foul play and decide to investigate.

Dead Funny
by Tanya Landman

When ageing starlet Baby Sugarcandy is found dead at the bottom of the stairs in her Hollywood mansion, it is assumed she tripped. However, an autopsy reveals she was dead before she fell… When a number of strange deaths follow, Poppy Fields and best friend Graham decide to investigate.

Operation Storm City

By Joshua Mowll

Book III of The Guild Trilogy: the adventure continues and the stakes are higher than ever. Have Becca and Doug learnt enough on their quest to solve the final mystery of Storm City, or will they find their parents only to lose them again for ever?

Non-Fiction

Two companion titles to Extreme Animals and Poo, which has sold over 100,000 copies worldwide, from the award-winning Nicola Davies and Neal Layton.

Just the Right Size

Have you ever wondered why animals are the size they are? Why some animals are big, why some are wide, why some are small and others are long and thin. Find out in this informative and wittily illustrated natural history book that explains all about how animals fit in to their environment and why they are all just the right size.

What’s Eating You?

Explore the weird and wonderful world of parasites in this follow-up to the bestselling Poo. Every animal has a habitat where it can find food and shelter and have its babies. But there is one group of creatures whose habitats are not forests, seas or deserts. Instead they live on or in the bodies of animals. They are parasites! Uncover the secrets of their amazing life cycles in this book of creepy-crawly diagrams and comic strips that make this information book engaging and accessible for young minds.

Alice Through the Looking-Glass
By Lewis Carroll
Illustrated by Helen Oxenbury

For over a century, Lewis Carroll’s classic stories of logic and lunacy have inspired delight in young and old alike. Continuing Alice’s adventures, Alice Through the Looking-Glass sees her walking through a mirror into a topsy-turvy world. There, she meets a host of bizarre characters, including Tweedledum and Tweedledee, Humpty Dumpty and the Red Queen. But is it all a dream?

This classic story is brilliantly illustrated for a new generation by the award-winning Helen Oxenbury.
